YALE FIVE MADE RAPID STRIDES

Result of Last Week's Games Leave Elis and Tigers Tied for First Place in Intercollegiate Basketball League-Mc-Nichol Leads the Individual Scoring.

Fresh complications arose in the playing Princeton and Dartmouth on ntercollegiate Basketball league race its home court. The Yale team is just ast week as a result of the over- finding itself and should have little last week as a result of the overthrow of the Columbia and Cornell teams by Yale and Princeton respectively, with the result that the Elis and Tigers are tied for first place from which the New York and Ithaca teams droped to a tie for third place. The four leading teams have each won five games but Princeton and Yale have the advantage in that they have been defeated only twice to three times for Columbia and Cornell. Half a game is all that separates them, however. Dartmouth is irrevocably doomed to last place as a result of another defeat at the hands of Pennsylvania.

games on its season with a game
games on its season with a game against Columbia on the Tiger court.
McNichol of Pennsylvania still shows the way in the individual scoring and Brown of Cornell is second but drepped back a trifle last week.
Benson of Columbia and Arnold of Yale both made rapid strides and it would not be surprising if the Yale man in his three remaining games should go to the top. McNichol's total is 105, and he is the first to pass the century mark.

COLLEGE HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP UNSETTLED

Ideal Way of Settling Controversy Would Be a Post-Season Series But

The college bockey championship this year, like the football title in some former seasons is more or less up in the air. Harvard and Dartmouth are the claimants. Ut at Cam-bridge, and among Harvard men genthey assert not without reasonerally they assert not without reasonthat the Crimson's seven is entitled to the honors. Up at Hanover, as is so frequently the case, they view the situation somewate differently and feel haat the title belongs to the Green rather than to the Crimson.
There's much to be said on both sides. Harvard has defeated Vale twice and Vale won from Dartmouth, "so why isn't Harvard champion" ask 'so why isn't Harvard champion" ask the supporters of the Winson-coached Crimson seven, But Dartmouth comes back with the rejoiner, "Dartmouth beat Harvard," and the Harvard is somewhat weakened in consequence.

Harvard Will Not Enter.

The whole proposition resolves itself into a matter of personal opinion, with one man having as much right to Jame H. Clarkin, owner of the Hartford team in the Eastern Baseball association, again kicks over the traces and declares he will never open up in Hartford with a baseball club in the association as long as James H. O'Rourke remains as president, Mr. Clarkin has previously stated he would never open up in a six-club league, and now he makes his stand somewhat stronger by getting after President O'Rourke. He intimates that Mr. O'Rourke is killing the league and says he is contented to sit quiet and watch the organization slowly pass away.

Mr. Clarkin is against a reduction of the salary lifnit, and in fact opposed to most everything favored by the other magnates.

Scheduled games and then quit. If Harvard has defeated her arch-rival, Yale, the season is regarded as a success. If Harvard has won, in addition, undisputed championship honors in that branch of spot, so much the in that branch of spot, so much the better. But to gain these additional honods Harvard has never been willing to extend her season beyond the original scheduled time.

TIME ORGANIZED BALL

CONSIDERED PEACE Mike Sexton States That the Minor Leagues Are Tired of the War.

In discussing the baseball situation while passing through Hot Springs, Ark., on the way to his home in Rock Island, Ill., from Little Rock, where he attended the funeral of Judge Kav-anaugh, late president of the Southern league, Mike Sexton, president of the National Association of Minor Leagues sounded the first real note for peace that has come from organized base-ball since the Federals began to wage war against them. According to Mr. Sexton, the policy of waiting for the independents to fall of their own weight has outlived its usefulness after being pursued for nearly two years, and the time has come when the heads of organized baseball shoupld step out and make terms of peace with the Feds and put an end to the rulnous warfare that is crippling the game.

As president of all the minor leagues
Mr. Sexton is in close touch with the conditions that prevail among the lit-tle fellows throughout the country. tle fellows throughout the country, and he practically admitted that the minor leagues, which have been the real heavy sufferers in the baseball war, are tired of playing the part of the buffer, and want peace, and want it quickly.

He did not intimate that there was in his mind any idea that the minor leaegues would revolt, but he made it clear that something ought to be done for them. for them.

"This baseball war with the Federal league is killing the game and doing terrible damage to the minor league clubs throughout the country." declared Mr. Sexton. "There is no longer any use of believing that the Federals are going to sink of their own weight, as has so frequently been said of them. They seem willing to spend of them. They seem willing to spend their money and they have not shown any indications, so far as I can see, any indications, so far as I can see, that they are going to quit.

"I think it is time that organized baseball considered peace with the Feds. They have got to get together. This war is ruining the minor leagues.

Feds Right After Johnson, Clark Griffith is going to have a big fight on his hands trying to keep Wal-ter Johnson from the clutches of the Federal league. "Fighting Jim" Gilmore, who has caused Messrs. Ban Johnson, Herrmann and Tener many sleepless nights, declares that Walter Johnson will either play with his "outlaw" organization or go back to his farm in Coffeyville.

his farm in Coffeyville,
"If we can't hold Johnson we can't hold a single player we have under contract," Gilmore said on Saturday night in Buffalo. "I don't care to discuss the case any further, though, until after Judge Landis renders his derision in our anti-trust suit."
This announcement will probably cause Griff some more annoyance. Just when everybody thought Gilmore had given up the fight for Johnson he

Afraid of Kidney Trouble-The Remedy

In 1968 I was taken very sick with Kidney trouble and being afraid, I went to a prominent physician at Libertyville, Iowa. After doctoring for Kansas City now has a bone to pick libertyville. Iowa. After doctoring for some time without cure or relief I beban the use of Swamp-Root and found immediate relief. After using several bottles which I bought of Jericho's Drug Store of Fairfield, Iowa. I became a well man and can honestly say that I have never had any signs or a return of any kidney trouble. I am so grateful toward your medicine that I never hesitate to recommend it that I never hesitate to recommend it to anyone I know who is suffering with Kidney trouble. Yours very truly
